

DAPHNE'S DAISIES

THE FIRST OF MANY LITTLE NEWSLETTERS

Flowers, foliage and a little bit of floral magic from Farsley Town Street

Welcome to the very first Daphne's Daisies newsletter!

And what a lovely place to start. This is the beginning of something brilliant, and I'm so excited to share a little of what has been happening in the shop, what's coming up, and all the floral loveliness you can look forward to.

A LITTLE THANK YOU

Since opening my very first premises on Farsley Town Street on 27th June, I honestly couldn't have asked for a warmer welcome.

Thank you to everyone who has popped through the door, bought flowers, booked a workshop, recommended me, shared my posts, or simply stopped to say hello. Your support has meant more than you probably realise.

WHAT A SUMMER!

Summer has been a brilliant one, filled with beautiful weddings, gorgeous flowers and lots of exciting moments in the shop.

My Little Hands Workshops for children and adults during the school holidays were a huge success — and I had some very clever little people! Thank you to everyone who came along.

Autumn Is Calling

Next up are my Autumn Pumpkin Workshops, which are always such good fun! Think gorgeous seasonal colours, beautiful flowers and a lovely creative session where you can make something special to take home.

They are bookable on my website now, so if you fancy getting crafty this autumn, head over and grab your place.

Seasonal colour, texture and all the joy of autumn

Christmas Is Creeping In...

I know, I know... it feels far too early to mention Christmas, but it really is creeping up! Keep your eyes peeled because my festive workshops will be available to book any day now — and I genuinely don't think you'll find anything quite like them elsewhere.

These are intimate, relaxed sessions held right here in my shop, with the tunes on, mulled wine flowing and plenty of festive atmosphere. And the best part? You don't all have to make the same thing!

Choose from spruce or eucalyptus wreaths, willow exposed wreaths, or even beautiful Christmas table centrepiece arrangements. You get to create something that suits your own style.

Sending Flowers Further Afield

I'm delighted to share that Daphne's Daisies is now an Interflora member! That means I can arrange and send flowers across the whole of the UK and Northern Ireland, making it even easier to send something lovely to someone special, wherever they may be.

For my lovely local customers, I now offer flower deliveries Monday to Saturday, made possible by the newest wonderful member of the team, Louise. 🌸

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

Whether you're celebrating, remembering, thanking someone, saying congratulations, sending love, or simply brightening someone's day, I'm always happy to help.

I create flowers for all occasions and all budgets. With years of experience behind me, I'm always happy to offer advice, ideas and guidance to help you find something just right.

More Than Just Flowers

If you haven't popped into the shop yet, what are you waiting for? As well as fresh flowers, I've got a lovely selection of houseplants, gifts and other little treasures in store — perfect for treating someone else, or yourself (which is absolutely allowed!).

Thank you for being part of the beginning

This is just the start for Daphne's Daisies, and I'm so excited about what's still to come. Thank you for supporting my little business, for making the first few months so special, and for helping turn a dream into something real.

Here's to lots more flowers, creativity, laughter and lovely things ahead. Joanne 🌻
